Welcome to Il Tempo!

Les Tres Riches Heures: The month of January depicts the giving New Years' gifts (a custom which seems to have died out now). Jean de Berry himself can be seen on the right, wearing the brilliant blue robe.

The two-dimensional work of art depicted in this image is in the public domain in the United States and in those countries with a copyright term of life of the author plus 100 years. This photograph of the work is also in the public domain in the United States (see Bridgeman Art Library v. Corel Corp.).

This is Volume 15 #12 of Il Tempo (The Times). Il Tempo is provided at no charge online and in PDF format on the Baronial web site. #### Heavy Weapons Champion: Lord Jürgen van der Vols

- Starting February 22, one Thursday every-other month would like to start double-elim tourney to help folks get up to speed, and practice for MoLs as well
- Looking for two tokens to use as prizes for these tournaments, one for the winner, one for the most chivalrous, to be passed on each tournament. Also looking for volunteer Heralds, MoLs and Marshals to assist.

Warlord: Lord Connor Sinclair

- Not present - reported by Sir Thomas of Calais
- War practice today went well - 20+ fighters, 5 Knights - melee tactics - fewer Pontoons than non-Pontoons

Events

Day at the Races III: November 2006

Autocrat: Mistress Anne of Carthew

- Not present - financials reported by Lady Celia of Rosedale
- 69 attendees - lost $42 on event, but made $640 on silent auction

Tournament of Love and Beauty: February 24, 2007

Autocrat: Lady Courtney of Houghton

- Need volunteer for decorations Friday night - James volunteered
- Borrowing Sir Thomas' list fences just in case
- Endurance, Humility, Prowess - new virtues
- Fighting for virtues may be sequential - rapier tourney - cut and thrust demo - heavy tourney, with heavy melees against the rapier tourney, and rapier melees against the heavy tourney
- Space heaters are allowed
- Will be dealing with dust control
- Rapier and Heavy winners of virtues - 20 total
- Lunch, Feast, A&S, and Merchants in the hall - need to post that in the fighting area so folks get lunch

Bloodbath: March 10, 2007

Autocrat: Sir Thomas of Calais and Lord Mathieu Chartrain

- Need to wait until January for site reservation
- Budget - $125 expected site fee, $100 for lunch. Parks are now requiring 15% of gate take - change fee to $6 instead of $5 to cover that 15% - Budget passed

Crown: May 2007

Autocrats: Iustinos/Marcellus

- Decision on bid will be made by the Heirs in the next month - they have been given our bid

- Kingdom has mandated that a $1500 profit be built into budget - if we increase the gate fee from $8 to $9, and not rent the extra buildings we don't need, we can make this
- If Their Highnesses accept the bid, we'll revisit in January

Pennsic: July/August 2007

Land Agent: NEEDED

- Anyone interested in stepping in should contact the Seneschal

Chalice IV: September 2007

Autocrat: Lady Katharine Devereaux

- Nothing new

Event: November 2007

Autocrat: Lady Luce Antony Venus

- Not present

Old Business

- Pewter tokens for baronial awards - hand casting within the barony is more cost-effective option, since we are not mass producing - we now have one badge to work on!
- Storage unit space OK now that silent auction stuff is gone. :)

New Business

- Perronelle will be updating phone directory - use online form to update entries - new issue at TOLAB ($2.50), cutoff date Jan 30.
- Early January - banner making workshops by Courtney and Connor with overhead projector - draw and paint on canvas for TOLAB spiff!

Announcements

- None

Meeting adjourned at approximately 7:15 pm.

Announcements

Baronial Officer Openings

Openings available for Baronial officer and deputy positions are listed below. Enthusiastic newcomers looking to get more involved in the day-to-day workings of the Barony are encouraged to apply!

Minister of Minors: Potential candidates should contact the Baronial Seneschal for more information or to apply.

Ponte Alto Directory

Lady Perronelle volunteered to coordinate a hard copy directory for Pontoons to use to stay in touch. If you would like to be included (only people included in the directory will be allowed to get a copy), please download the form \(MS Word\) (http://pontealto.atlantia.sca.org/ponte\_alto\_directory\_form.doc) , fill it out, and email or snail mail it to Lady Perronelle la peintre (dwatsonirwin AT cox.net, (703) 455-0298 (H)). Or use the online directory form (<http://pontealto.atlantia.sca.org/directory.php>) to submit your information via email. The next printing of the directory will be at Tournament of Love and Beauty February 24, 2007, and copies are $2.50 each. Submission deadline for this printing is January 30, 2007.

Historical Event Matrix

Since the historically traditional event weekends for northern Atlantian groups have been under heavy discussion lately, Mistress Anne of Carthew put together an event matrix \(PDF\) (http://pontealto.atlantia.sca.org/group\_event\_history\_summary.pdf) showing which northern Atlantian groups hosted events which weekends from 1998 through 2005.

News

Holiday Faire

Congratulations to Lady Marsaili Johnston of Lockwood Moss, whose woven basket won a prize in the A&S competition.

And our own Baron Marcellus Capozziello da Napoli showed his fighting prowess by winning the rapier tournament.

Also, Their Majesties awarded Emily, daughter of Lord Mathieu Chartrain, the Sea Urchin. Vivant for Lady Marsaili, Baron Marcellus, and Emily!

Day at the Races III

One if by land, two if by sea, and three if by air! The third Day at the Races event took to the air, racing falcons of all kinds (though mostly of the balsa wood glider variety). Sir Aelfred of Cres, last year's winner of the boat races, returned to defend his title, and succeeded with his bird, a pelican named Nellie the Pellie. The winner of the children's races was young Robert, son of Talitha. And the prize for the best bird went to Lord Pagan Grendel for his well dressed bird, Jezabelle, who sported a hood with a red plume.

Falcon races were not the only tournament of the day, however. Sir Thomas of Calais ran a chess tournament, which was clearly won by Haddrurus.

After the competitions were complete, Their Excellencies held court and conducted the following business:

- Lady Marsailli Johnston of Lockwood Moss stepped down as Baronial Chatelaine, and Lord James de Biblesworth took on the office.
- The Bead of Ponte Alto was given to Mistress Anne of Carthew for her work as autocrat, Lady Delphina the Mad for being rental coordinator for all three DATR events and the Minister of the List for the past two years (with an injunction to submit a report for this one to the Kingom MoL), Signora Cassandra Arabella Giordani for being Baronial Bookie for the past two years, and Lady Perronelle la peintre for running an on-site bird hospital.
- The Ponte di Ferro was awarded to Baroness Catalina dell'Acqua for her excellent work in the rapier community.
- Baroness Greta Klusenaere was inducted into the Order of the Garland for her many years of service to the Barony.

Vivant to all deserving award recipients, and to all the race and tournament participants!

War of the Wings

Windmasters' Hill battled Sacred Stone at the War of the Wings. It was a beautiful day for war! Ponte Alto allied with Windmasters' Hill for the day.

Four Ponte Alto rapier fighters, Lord Geoffrey Clywd, Baroness Catalina dell'Acqua, Baroness Greta Klusenaere, and Haddrurus, took to the field and the woods in battle. Haddrurus, as baronial champion, was also invited to participate in the Champions rapier battle.

The Ponte Alto Performance Mercenaries, Mistress Anne of Carthew, Mistress Allasondrea de Fano, Lady Celia of Rosedale, Signora Cassandra Arabella Giordani, and Lady Millicent Chandler, earned 475 points for Windmasters' Hill in the Performance competition, to help win the war point for our allies.

Vivant for the Ponte Alto Mercenaries!

In other news of note, the last piece of business at royal court involved a former Pontoon, Master Herveus d'Ormande, who was served with a writ to contemplate joining the Order of the Laurel at a future date to be determined. Vivat for Master Herveus!

The Tradition of Wassail

Wassail is a hot, spiced punch often associated with winter celebrations of northern Europe, usually those connected with the Christmas holiday such as Christmas, New Year's and Twelfth Night. Particularly popular in Germanic countries, the term itself is a contraction of the Old English toast wæs hæl, or "be thou hale!" (i.e., "be in good health"). Alternate expressions predating the term, with approximately the same meaning, include both the Old Norse ves heill and Old English wes hæl.

While the beverage typically served as "wassail" at modern holiday feasts with a medieval theme most closely resembles mulled cider, historical wassail was completely different, more likely to be mulled beer. Sugar, ale, ginger, nutmeg, and cinnamon would be placed in a bowl, heated, and topped with slices of toast as sops. Hence the first stanza of the traditional carol the Gloucestershire Wassail dating back to the Middle Ages:

Wassail! wassail! all over the town,
Our toast it is white and our ale it is brown;
Our bowl it is made of the white maple tree;
With the wassailing bowl, we'll drink to thee.

Recipes vary, but usually call for a base of either wine or fruit juices (apple being popular) simmered with mulling spices, possibly fortified with spirits such as brandy. Orange slices might be added to the mixture. (In northern Europe, oranges once enjoyed the status of a novelty Christmas fruit. As oranges come into season in the winter, in pre-refrigeration days that might be the only time of year that they were available to cold climates -- provided they survived shipment from the warmer countries in which they were grown.)

Wassail is very similar to a Roman winter beverage called calda which, according to the recipes of Apicius, consisted of wine cut with water, then heated, sweetened with honey, and flavored with aromatic spices. (Many Christmas traditions actually derive from those of the Roman festival of Saturnalia, so a connection between the two is possible.)

The Traditional Wassail Ceremony

Some scholars prefer a pre-Christian explanation of the old traditional ceremony of Wassailing. How far the tradition dates back is unknown but it has undeniable connections with Pagan ritual. Of recent times the word Wassail (from the Anglo-Saxon toast wæs hæl, "be thou hale" -- i.e., "be in good health") has come to be synonymous with Christmas but this is incorrect. The pre-Christian tradition of wassailing far outdates the celebration of Christmas. Traditionally the Wassail is celebrated on Twelfth Night (6th January). However most people insist on wassailing on 'Old Twelvey Night' (17th January) as that would have been the correct date before the introduction of the Gregorian Calendar in 1752. The purpose of Wassailing is to awake the cider apple trees and to scare away evil spirits to ensure a good harvest of fruit in the Autumn. The ceremonies of each wassail varies from village to village but they generally all have the same core elements. A wassail King and Queen to lead the proceedings, and song and/or a processional tune to be played/sung from one orchard to the next, the wassail Queen will be lifted up into the boughs of the tree where she will place toast that has been soaked in Wassail from the Clayen Cup as a gift the tree spirits and to show them the fruits of what they created the previous year. Then an incantation is usually recited such as Here's to thee, old apple tree, That blooms well, bears well. Hats full, caps full, Three bushel bags full, An' all under one tree. Hurrah! Hurrah!

Then the assembled crowd will sing and shout and bang drums and pots & pans and generally make a terrible racket until the gunsmen give a great final volley through the branches to make sure the work is done and then off to the next orchard. Perhaps unbeknown to the general public, this ancient English tradition is still very much thriving today.

A Traditional Shropshire Wassail Recipe @ for hardened Wassailers!

10 very small apples

1 large orange stuck with whole cloves

10 teaspoons brown sugar

2 bottles dry sherry or dry Madeira

1/2 teaspoon grated nutmeg

1 teaspoon ground ginger

3 cloves

3 allspice berries

2 or 3 cinnamon sticks

2 cups castor sugar

12 to 20 pints of cider according to the number of guests

1 cup (or as much as you like) brandy

Core the apples and fill each with a teaspoon of brown sugar. Place in a baking pan and cover the bottom with 1/8-inch of water.

Insert cloves into the orange about 1/2" apart.

Bake the orange with the apples in a 350° oven.

After about 30 minutes, remove the orange and puncture it in several places with a fork or an ice pick.

Combine the sherry or Madeira, cider, nutmeg, ginger, cloves, allspice berries, cinnamon, sugar, apple and orange juice and water in a large, heavy saucepan and heat slowly without letting the mixture come to a boil.

Leave on very low heat.

Strain the wine mixture and add the brandy.

Pour into a metal punch bowl, float the apples and orange on top and ladle hot into punch cups.

Makes enough for 15-20 people

Wassail - nonalcoholic

1 large orange stuck with whole cloves

4 Litres apple cider or apple juice

2 Litres soft fruit juice (we like peach)

1/2 cup fresh lemon juice

6 cinnamon sticks

Insert cloves into the orange about 1/2" apart. Bake the orange in a 350° oven. After about 30 minutes, remove the orange and puncture it in several places with a fork or an ice pick.

Place the orange and the remaining ingredients in a large pot and cover it.

Bring it to a boil and simmer over low heat for another 30 minutes.

Transfer to a heat-proof punch bowl or crockpot.

Float the orange and cinnamon sticks.

Serve in heat-proof punch cups.

Makes 30-40 servings.
