Il Tempo

Welcome to Il Tempo (The Times), the Newsletter of the Barony of Ponte Alto, one of the northern baronies in the Kingdom of Atlantia.

Il Tempo strives to be an informative read that you look forward to. To this end, we are always appreciative of any contributions to it, perhaps an article of a project you are working on or are interested in, how to make/play a period game, your experience at an event, how/what to prepare for a day trip, a recipe/ piece of garb that you've made, documentation on an item you've competed - a how to on documentation, a few words on a historical person/event, photos, a book review, something to share with a newcomer - perhaps a short autobiography of your persona or how you came to figure out your persona.

The list can go on for ages - only limited by the speed at which our hands can write out what our minds can think of.

Come, share with us adventures in the great Barony of Ponte Alto, in the grand Kingdom of Atlantia, in this - the current Middle Ages!

News / Announcements

A Salad Recipe for Spring

Salat

*Take persel, sawge, grene garlec, chibolles, oynouns, leek, borage, myntes, porrettes, fennel, and toun cressis, rew, rosemarye, purslarye: laue and waische hem clene. Pike hem. Pluk hem small wi * yn honde, and myng hem wel with rawe oile; lay on vyneger and salt, and serue it forth.

Form of Cury (14th century English manuscript, Middle English)

Translation: take parsley, sage, green garlic, spring onions, onions, leek, borage, mint, young leeks or green onions, fennel, garden cress, rue, rosemary, purslane; wash them clean (in water). Pick them (I think this means to pick over them to remove large pieces of stem, foreign matter, etc). Pluck them small with your hand, and mix them well with raw oil; add vinegar and salt, and serve it forth.

In her commentary on this recipe in her book Pleyn Delit, Constance Hieatt warns that "grene garlic" would be wild garlic, much milder than the modern variety, and she also suggests that some versions of this recipe in other manuscripts also call for the leaves of spinach (I'd suggest baby spinach, myself).

From His Excellency

Once again the month has seen us travel near and far to experience the wonders of our fair Kingdom and the activities and contributions of the members of the Barony

Only her Excellency was able to attend the Coronation of the Heir to the Thrones of Atlantia. The room was hushed with sadness as the outgoing Monarchs processed out - seconds later to be filled with expectant hope for the reign of King Dietrich and Queen Thora. Pontoons made a terrific showing fielding both the armored and rapier champions, and bringing home many archery awards. Ponte Alto's hospitality was spectacular and was shared by pontoons and distinguished guests. We appreciate all who came out and fought and shot, served as staff or volunteers for the event, retained, participated in the A&S competitions, or simply socialized!

The following weekend the Order of St Aidens held a war practice at Silverleaf Estates. Both of us took the field to work on tactics for the Atlantian army. Lord Arthur our armored champion did travel with us and participated in the fighting and instruction.

Finally was Nacht in der Stadt closer to home. A full day of rapier activities was enjoyed by His Excellency while her Excellency entertained visitors and attended the Queen's tea. There were a number of Pontoons on the fighting field, Most notably, Lord Geoffery won the heavy rapier Black Sword tourney and Sir Joselin was elevated to the rank of Free Scholar.

Next month will see us at Crown Tournament, On Target, Ruby Joust, and Old School War practice. We encourage as many fighters, combat archers, and target archers to attend OSWP and help prepare Atlantia for Pennsic war.

Respectfully submitted

Alric
Baron, Ponte Alto

We really could use your help

There are several positions in our Barony that could use a Deputy; actually, all of the positions that we have could benefit by having at least one deputy.

Why a Deputy? Well, it is easy for any one of use to intend to do something if we don't take into account that the SCA is what we do with our time after we are finished doing what we do to pay the bills.

With deputies, the work load can be shared, allowing more work to be accomplished with less time and stress for any one individual.

Besides, it is a great way to work with others to do something different to help make yours and other's SCA experience that much better!
