IL TEMPO

Welcome to Il Tempo (The Times), the Newsletter of the Barony of Ponte Alto, one of the northern baronies in the Kingdom of Atlantia.

Il Tempo strives to be an informative read that you look forward to. To this end, we are always appreciative of any contributions to it, perhaps an article of a project you are working on or are interested in, how to make/play a period game, your experience at an event, how/what to prepare for a day trip, a recipe/piece of garb that you've made, documentation on an item you've completed - a how to on documentation, a few words on a historical person/event, photos, a book review, something to share with a newcomer - perhaps a short autobiography of your persona or how you came to figure out your persona.

The list can go on for ages - only limited by the speed at which our hands can write out what our minds can think of.

Come, share with us adventures in the great Barony of Ponte Alto, in the grand Kingdom of Atlantia, in this - the current Middle Ages!

LOOKING FOR A WAY TO GET INVOLVED? WHY NOT TRY RETAINING!

What is retaining?

Their Excellencies need help with taking notes (e.g. for gifts or to-do stuff), staying hydrated, reminders to stay on schedule, fetching things, and otherwise keeping Their Excellencies comfortable and out of trouble (especially the Mongol one)!

Who can retain?

Anyone can retain! If you've got free time at an event, Their Excellencies will be very appreciative of your assistance. Plus, it's a great way to learn more about what it means to be part of the pageantry of the SCA!

How can I volunteer?

If you are interested in volunteering, or even just finding out more, reach out to our head retainer!

GAMES FROM ANCIENT EGYPT

By Lisbet of Spinning Winds

Although we've covered games from around the world in this intermittent series, we haven't yet travelled to Ancient Egypt. Both senet and the game played by Pharaoh and Nefretiri in the movie "The Ten Commandments" have roots in Egypt and boards have been excavated in locations outside the Nile valley. Both also share the use of two-color throwing sticks rather than dice. Cast four sticks and count the light/flat sides. However, if all the sticks land dark/rounded side up the count is 6.

To make your own throwing sticks, cut the "legs" off two wooden clothespins/doll pegs. Sticks can also be made by gluing two differently colored miniature popsicle sticks together or painting short lengths of square dowels. Sticks that are too flat or too long are more difficult to roll randomly.

Senet

The Dancers (cones and reels) race along the S-shaped path together. Players can send an opponent's dancer back to the beginning by landing on it. There is a safe space and one that represents the Nile. Ron Knight webbed rules here:

<http://www.modaruniversity.org/Game16.htm>.

Hounds and Jackals/Palm Tree/ 58 holes

This game was named by archeologists and has only speculative rules. It appears players stay in their lane in this race game. This board was made in 2013 and recently published research suggests a few features are missing. If you care to dive deeper, here are some suggested starting points as well as the bibliography in the Wikipedia article

ART SPOTLIGHT: BIOGRAPHIES OF LIAN PO AND LIN XIANGRU

Calligrapher Huang Tingjian, Chinese, ca. 1095

From the Met's website:

Poet, calligrapher, and Chan (Zen) Buddhist adept, Huang Tingjian believed that calligraphy should be spontaneous and self-expressive – “a picture of the mind.” Containing nearly twelve hundred characters, this handscroll is a master-piece of cursive-script writing. It transcribes an account of a rivalry between two officials: Lian Po, a distinguished general; and Lin Xiangru, a skilled strategist. Huang’s transcription ends abruptly with Lin’s words: “When two tigers fight, one must perish. I behave as I do because I put our country’s fate before private feuds.” Read in the context of Song political infighting, Huang’s transcription becomes a powerful indictment of the partisanship that led to his own banishment in 1094.

This is only one of the pages of this biography.

WE REALLY COULD USE YOUR HELP!

There are several positions in our Barony that could use a Deputy; actually, all of the positions that we have could benefit by having at least one deputy.

Why a Deputy? Well, it is easy for any one of us to intend to do something if we don't consider that the SCA is what we do with our time after we are finished doing what we do to pay the bills.

With deputies, the workload can be shared, allowing more work to be accomplished with less time and stress for any one individual.

Besides, it is a great way to work with others to do something different to help make yours, and others', SCA experience that much better!

Do you have an A&S project you'd like to share with your fellow Pontoons?

We'd love to publish it! Contact our Minister of A&S, Noble Sæunn Hima!
